At 1.45 a.m. July 12, 1939, a party of Crime Branch Headquarters detectives in rendering assistance to Japanese Consular Police raided Lane 253, House 41, Park Road and seized, among other weapons etc, one Demon .32 auto pistol No. 1306 and 719. This, on examination by Arms Identification Section, was found to be the pistol used in this case causing the death of Moa Hyeoh Jong (馬育敬). The pistol has been handed to Japanese Consular Police.

At 1.45 a.m. July 12, 1939 another party of Crime Branch Headquarters detectives rendered assistance to Japanese Consular Police and raided No. 29, Park Road where one was arrested.

Ying Hui (程子惠) 45, Saushing, U/un-employed

At 3.30 a.m. July 12, 1939 another party of Crime Branch Headquarters detectives, with assistance of French Police, rendered assistance to Japanese Consular Police and raided No. 142 Route Vallon where Loa Yien (李延) 49, Taiyang, U/coal merchant was taken into custody.

The foregoing seizures and arrests are fully outlined in C.B.H. (C.I.) Misc. 105/39.

Both arrests admitted being members of anti-

Japanese organizations and verbally admitted to D.S.I. Seong Ping Tsoong and the undersigned being concerned in the murder of Mee Nyeh Oong but no statement to this effect was permitted by the Japanese Consular Police authorities (Vide diary 29 sheet 1 of G.I. Misc. 105/39).

There is no reason to suspect that their admissions were made in an effort to evade permanent handing over to the Japanese Consular Police which actually transpired on July 21, 1939 and August 14, 1939 respectively.

Since those dates no report of the action taken by the Japanese Consular authorities against them has been received by the Municipal Police.

In view of the seizure made and the admission of the two, although verbal, it is respectfully suggested that this case be considered as successfully investigated.

MURDER IN SUN SUN HOTEL

At about 7 p.m. yesterday a murder took place in Room 605 of the Sun Sun Hotel, Kweichow Road, the victim being one Moo Yoch-hang (馬育航), an official of the "Reformed Government".

The murdered lodger, a man of about 50 years of age, frequently travels between Shanghai and Hongkong and when in Shanghai he always stays at the Sun Sun Hotel. For this reason, most of the room boys of the hotel know his surname as Moo.

At 5 or 6 days ago Moo booked Room 605 on the 5th floor, giving his name on the hotel register as Tsai (蔡). He never slept in the room; he used to call at the hotel either in the morning or afternoon and left at about midnight. At ordinary times he was visited by friends who kept their movements very secret. Most of his friends are well dressed. Apparently they called to make certain arrangements as no mahjongg games or other amusements were noticed.

At 9 a.m. yesterday Moo arrived at the room and locked himself in. Room boys entered the room on several occasions in answer to calls, but he seemed to have something on his mind. At 7 p.m. the room boys suddenly heard a noise like the firing of a pistol shot. They visited all the rooms to ascertain the location of the noise. When the boys went to Room 605 they saw Moo lying in front of the bath room with a bullet wound in the right temple. There was much blood on the floor and on a table. Judging by his dress, he seemed to have just risen from the bed and was shot while sitting at the table. The murderer left immediately after the crime. The door was found unlocked. The Louza Police was informed and the wounded man was removed to the Chinese Lester Hospital but died at 9.45 p.m.

A special pass bearing the photograph of the deceased in the name of Moo Yoch-hang, age 42, native of Fokien, Councillor to the "Reformed Government", was found in the room. The pass was signed by Won Chung-yao, President of the Legislative Yuan of the "Reformed Government".

It is learned that Moo formerly held an important post under General Chen Chuin-ming (陳炯明). At one time he planned, on behalf of the Japanese, a revolt among the Chinese troops in Kwangtung so as to enable the Japanese to take the province without fighting. For his work he was given his present appointment. Recently, he became manager of a branch office of the "South China Rice Company". It is said that his death might be due to internal strife such as unequal division over spoils of office.

Murdered Man Was Important Official

Moo Ngho-hung Said to Have Come from Nanking

Headquarters detectives of the Shanghai Municipal Police yesterday continued the investigation of the assassination which took place on Sunday evening on the sixth floor of the Sun Sun Hotel, Nanking Road, a case to which considerable importance is attached.

The middle-aged victim, Moo Ngho-hung, was killed with one shot from a pistol held by a man who entered Moo's room alone and who managed to escape after the crime. Moo is reported to have been formerly the Chief of the Finance Bureau of the Kwangtung Provisional Government, and at the time of his death was chief adviser to the Executive Yuan of the central "Reformed Government." He had been staying in the Sun Sun Hotel, which is situated above the Sun Sun department store, since January 23. He is thought to have arrived here from Nanking on a political mission.

Despite Moo's connections with the Japanese-sponsored régime, the motive for the assassination is not entirely clear. Efforts are being made to trace his past and to learn what enemies he might have made.

By examination of the cartridge-case the Police have established that the pistol with which Moo was killed was used in 1930 by a robber in the West Hongkew district. The history of the weapon is being further scrutinized.

Murdered Man Identified As Puppet Leader

Wealth Said Amassed
By Aiding Japanese
In South China

Mystery yesterday continued to shroud the killing of Mo Ngyohung, one-time a high official in the Kwangtung Provincial Government, who died yesterday of a bullet wound in the head in a local hotel.

A Chinese report indicated that from the belongings of the murdered man, it has been unmistakably established that he was connected with the Peking puppet regime. His identification card, signed by Wen Tsung-yao, the puppet "Legislative Yuan" chief, was issued by the "Provisional Government."

Arriving in the city on January 23, Mo registered in the hotel under the assumed name of Tsai. He told the hotel management that he had just arrived from Hongkong.

Another Chinese report stated that Mo had actively co-operated with the Japanese authorities in Canton shortly after they captured the southern city. It was reported that Mo had "cleaned up" several lakhs in this enterprise before he returned to Shanghai.

Before taking part in the Japanese-sponsored regime, Mo held several important government posts. At one time, he was Commissioner of Finance in Kwangtung Province while at a later date, he served as a committeeman of the Military Affairs Council of the National Government.

The murderer is still at large but the police are in possession of his finger prints.

Mystery Shrouds Shooting

Police Have Record Of
Pistol Used In Sun
Sun Hotel Murder

Mystery yesterday continued to shroud the brutal murder in the Sun-Sun Hotel on Sunday evening of a middle-aged Chinese, reported to be a high official of the City Government of Nanking. Detectives of the Crime Branch Headquarters of the Shanghai Municipal Police are in charge of investigations, but up to late yesterday had not been able to unravel anything of importance.

The only clue left in the room in which Mr. Mao Yu-ong, 45, was found shot through the head, an empty cartridge, was identified by ballistic experts of the Shanghai Municipal Police as having been fired from a pistol which had been seized by the S.M.P. in 1930. The weapon was confiscated by the First Special District Court. What happened to the pistol after that, the police had not ascertained yesterday.

The son of the murdered man was located by detectives yesterday. He expressed great surprise at hearing that his father was in Shanghai. The son informed the police that his father had not been in Shanghai for several years and that he did not know what he had been doing during the past two years. Formerly, he said, his father was connected with the National Government.

It was rumoured in Chinese circles yesterday that the deceased held the position of Secretary-General of the Nanking City Government. In his possession the police found a Japanese laissez-passer.

The task of the police in tracking down the murderer is made difficult due to the fact that no one saw him arrive at the hotel or depart. The roomboy heard a shot whilst he was in another room and on rushing into the one occupied by Mr. Mao found him lying dead on the floor.

Letter dated January 11, addressed to "Brother Yoh" (the deceased) from Chi (奇).

January 11.

Brother Yoh:

I am in receipt of the two letters you sent me and I quite agree with your opinion and views. I have never been anxious at securing money and therefore there should be no concern about eating my own words. She (he) is not known to have been fond of criticising others. What Mou Tse (茂之) has to say is far more unreliable.

It does not seem to be the case that Japan is very anxious to sue for peace. We should carefully examine the information emanating from various sources. I wish to be informed of the news, if any, that you may hear from your interviews with Ching (銘) and Lan (蘭).

It does not appear that Wang Ching-wei has made arrangements before his forced departure from Chungking. Many difficulties will be encountered before the matter can be accomplished. No telegram has been received from Brother Tai (戴).

Some new ways may be found for the affairs over here. You will be acquainted with the progress in further communications.

loon Daung, and The Prince Road.
(九龍城,九龍塘,太子道)).

Mobile Unit: Will not be assigned to any definite district but will be transferred from time to time on orders.

The duties of the mobile unit will be similar to those of the district units but the mobile unit will be required to carry out assassinations also. Members of the mobile unit will be required to procure their own pistols.

5. Mission: The mission of this group can be divided into the following two kinds:-

Regular activities:

- (a) To trace the movements of important persons connected with the military and political circles and the Tang (?
Kuomintang).
- (b) To detect the "secrets" of all reactionary elements.
- (c) To keep watch on social conditions.

Special activities to be carried out when an order is received.

- (a) Agitation.
- (b) Assault (? assassination).
- (c) Destruction.

Outlines of the organization of the X I News Agency

- (1) Name: X I News Agency.
- (2) Aim: To collect reliable news material to be supplied to the newspaper offices in Hongkong and foreign countries.
- (3) Address: - - -
- (4) Mission: This news agency shall endeavour to influence the press in Hongkong in compliance with the instructions of the Special Service Department of X I Party. This news agency shall supply to the press articles and reports favourable to our side.
This news agency shall conduct propaganda among the Chinese residents in America and South Sea Islands.
This news agency shall distribute our propaganda matter to intermediary and higher schools and bodies.
This news agency shall prepare propaganda matter.
- (5) Organization: This News Agency shall have one president (this position is to be held concurrently by the chief of the propaganda department), one chief editor, a number of editors, one chief and several assistants in the general affairs section, and one chief and a number of reporters in the reporters' section.

Other particulars relating to the organization of this news agency will be decided upon when the Special Service Department has been organized. As regards the proposal to establish a newspaper office for the purpose of publishing a newspaper independently, a publication section should be organized in order to control the printing work. The general principles of the organization of the latter will be stipulated later.

Draft of a contract between a Chinese business concern and a Japanese firm (names not given) relating to shipping trade along the Yangtze.

The business concern as Party A.

The Japanese firm as Party B.

- 1) Party B shall be responsible for acquiring the right of navigation along the Yangtze and for completing all other relevant arrangements.
- 2) All negotiations between Party A and the Japanese authorities in connection with the trade of Party A shall be undertaken by Party B.
- 3) The business of Party A shall not be interfered with by Party B but the accounts of Party A may be subject to examination from time to time by an auditor to be detailed by Party B.
- 4) Should it become necessary for Party A to establish branches in the various ports along the Yangtze River, such as Hankow, Kiukiang, Nanking and Wuhu etc., Party A may request Party B to detail a certain number of capable hands to be resident at the ports for the purpose of taking charge of negotiations that might arise between Party A and the local Japanese authorities. The business of Party A shall not be interfered with by men detailed by Party B.
- 5) After deducting all expenses, X X tenth of the net profit which accrues from the Party A shall be given to Party B. A bi-monthly return of all accounts shall be made, by Party A.
- 6) The trade of Party A shall be limited to the transportation and sale of native products along the Yangtze all other sundry foreign goods and contraband shall be prohibited.

Translation of letter dated "28th, ", signed
Liang (梁), addressed to Chau Tien Yui
(朱天猷), 7 Tai Sing Ka, Sie Koon Yung, Peiping.

"28th"

To-day I am in receipt of the letter dated January 3, from Hongkong, to which city the letter had originally been despatched. The contents of this letter are enumerated below:-

- 1) Yui Lao (姚老) and Fah Wei (何偉) etc., have deserted us and gone over to the side of the leftists.
- 2) Tah Tsei (達才) is at present residing with his employer at the Nanking Bank in Hongkong. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is quite well off. We are as poor as ever and seldom see him, except when meeting him in the street.
- 3) I have forgotten the address of Ying Wu (吳英),
but letters may be despatched to the home of Woo
Tiao-ming (吳兆銘), Sung Chong, Yung Sung Street, Hongkong, where he is residing. It appears that he is holding the position of an office assistant in the employ of one named Wong (黃), who is his fellow-provincial. I saw him very often in Hongkong and I find that he is not opposed to any activities in which we may take part.
- 4) Sz Yah (邵亞) and Tung Yuan (董源) etc., do not amount to anything, and that is part of my reason for leaving Hongkong, since it would not be fair if I should refuse him my cooperation. He is not in the money at present, yet he advocates radical steps being taken, which I am not in favour.

- 5) The employer of Shiang Chi (香池) has already assumed the post of Deputy-Chief at the native country of Tseu Sz Yah (周師爺). Nothing can be done in this direction. Li Ngo (廖吾) has made some unsuccessful endeavours at persuasion and has incurred an expense of from $1,000 to $2,000.
- 6) Relatives of Li Ngo have often held conversations with us. I do not agree with his methods which are far from being thorough. My opinion is that a sum should be set aside specially for the project.
- 7) I may have to stay for some time yet.
- 8) It is rather insecure to reside in Hongkong, since a World War is likely to break out at any moment. But what can we do if we have no money, even for removal.

I have rarely communicated with Tseu Sz Yah, who is a bore to me. If you should see him, just give him my regards.

Liang (良).

RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

At 9 p.m. 29.1.39, as result of a communication received from Supt. Mason, D.D.O. "A", the undersigned accompanied by D.S. Fowler and C.D.S. 274, attended Louza Station in connection with this case and as result of a perusal of a note book found on person of the deceased one named Chen Ping Tsun (陳平尊) residing 68 Great Western Road was communicated with, first by telephone, and later in person at the aforesaid address. This gentleman when questioned regarding the deceased, stated that about 15 years ago he had met this man, i.e. Mau Yoh Ong (毛育榮) age 59, native of Canton, whilst the latter was chief of the Administration of Finance of the Provincial Government of Kwangtung, and that since then he had remained on friendly terms with this man. Continuing Mr. Chen explained that in recent years the deceased had given up his political career and had taken up business with the South China Rice Trading Co. in Hongkong. Further questioned regarding the arrival of the deceased in Shanghai on this occasion and his reasons for coming here, Mr. Chen, explained that he knew nothing definite in this direction, but that approximately three weeks ago, the deceased had called at his home and finding him absent left a message requesting him to call at Room 7 Dollar Hotel, Yu Ya Ching Road. In compliance with this request Mr. Chen visited this room, and the impression gained was that the deceased appeared to be very nervous and definitely in straitened circumstances, and by the conversation that ensued it appeared that he had called Chen in the hope of obtaining some financial assistance, which at that time was not given. Mr. Chen in reply to further questions stated that the deceased had on this occasion given no explanation as to his intentions in Shanghai nor had he ever mentioned anything political. In conclusion Mr. Chen stated that this was the one and only occasion he had met the deceased since his arrival in Shanghai, and that as result of information obtained from friends to the effect that deceased was working for the "Reformed Government", he made no further attempts to contact him, as he himself had retired from government service many years ago, and did not wish to become involved in any political party.

Acting on the information supplied by Mr. Chen to the effect that deceased had lived at the Dollar Hotel, this address was visited, however beyond ascertaining that the latter had rented Room 305 between the 1st. and 3rd. January 1939, nothing further was brought to light.

Continuing enquiries the party next visited Room 311 of the Central Hotel, where according to a note book found on the person of deceased, one named Tsui Hung Kwei (朱鴻逵) alias Tsui Chi Jing (朱季琴) secretary of the Kiangsu Provincial Government could be contacted, however on arrival there it was ascertained that this room had been occupied for the past two years by one named Loh Ping Tsai (羅平泰) who claimed to be a reporter on the Sin Wen Pao (新南報) newspaper, but who is strongly suspected of using this room as an opium den. This man when questioned denied knowing the deceased or the man Tsui Hung Kwei, and no useful information could be obtained from him.

In connection with this address, discreet enquiries are now being made re the possibility of this room being used by members of the "Reformed Government" as a meeting place or communication address.

Returning to Crime Branch Headquarters the undersigned met members of Japanese Special Service Corp, who requested full particulars regarding the assassination of the deceased and also requested permission to see any documents etc found in his possession. The former information was given, but in connection with the latter it was explained that no documents, other than a small note book containing names and addresses had been found, and this they were permitted to examine.

At 11 a.m. 30.1.39, before Procurator Tang Bai Yeu (張培猷), an inquest was held on the body of deceased at the Public Mortuary and after all evidence had been given the following verdict was handed down:—

"Death due to bullet wound in the head, Body to be removed by Mau Z Chu (馬足初), son of deceased for burial".

In connection with the appearance of deceased's son at the Public Mortuary, this man when questioned as to how he came to know of his father's death, stated that he had been informed of same that morning by a friend of his father's named Sung Ting Tung (宋廷東) who could be located through one named Tsang Tuh Sung (張德勝) (ex-C.D. 9.319 recently dismissed from B'well Station) at the Dollar Hotel, Yu Ya Ching Road. Questioned regarding the recent political activities of his father and his reason for coming to Shanghai at this time, Mr. Mau explained that he and his father were not on very friendly terms, though the latter having become a member of the "Reformed Government", and that until the morning of 30.1.39, he had no idea that his father was in Shanghai. Questioned as to why he came to be in Shanghai he stated that up until six months ago he had been employed as Deputy Chief of the Tungsten Bureau under the Administration of Economics, Swatow Branch, and that owing to sickness he had come to Shanghai to consult a French Specialist, he himself having studied at the Ecole Politique Paris for nearly 8 years. Arriving in Shanghai in August 1938 he had taken up residence with Professor Tong Zee Sha (黃子夏) of the Chautong University, at No. 9 Se Wei Tsung (四馬路) Route Picard Destelan French Concession, and that recently he had moved to Lane 1930 House 9 Ave. Joffre, French Concession, where he was living with his wife.

As this man's statement did not appear to ring true, he was questioned to some considerable length, but without result, he maintaining that he had no political connections in Shanghai, and that he obtained his livelihood through the sale of linen goods imported from Suatow.

During the questioning of the above man, members of the Japanese Special Service Corp accompanied by one named Tsai Cheng Jen (張景仁) a native of Taiwan, who claimed relationship with the deceased, called at this office and requested that deceased's son be allowed to accompany them to the Public Mortuary for the purpose of removing the remains of his father, however as the son had produced no means of identification and owing to a certain information obtained at this time, this request was refused, pending the production of some means of identification, which he (son) said he could produce at his home. Accompanied by deceased's son D.S. Fowler proceeded to his home at 1980/9 Avenue Joffre, French Concession where the necessary means of identification was produced, after which the son was allowed to remove the body.

In reference to the pistol used in the commission of this offence, subsequent enquiries through the Municipal Advocate's office revealed that same was transferred from the store room of the 1st S.S.D. Court to the Shanghai Woosung Garrison Commander's office on the 18.5.34 by order of the Ministry of (Any outstanding or peculiar feature to be commented on by investigating officer).

Remarks

At 7.06 p.m. 29-1-39, a telephone message was received at Louna Station from the Sun Sun Hotel (新新旅館) Kweichow Road, reporting that a man had been shot in Room 605 of the hotel.

Officer 1/c of Station, D.I. Bennett, D.S.I. Elders and detectives immediately attended.

Room 605 of this hotel is situated on the 6th floor of the hotel, to which access may be gained either by stairway or lift, the lift however only proceeding to the 5th floor, when access to the 6th floor must be gained by the stairway, room 605 being situated a considerable distance from top of stairway of this floor.

Upon arrival at room 605, the body of a male Chinese was found lying on his back in a large pool of blood, he having been wounded in the right side of the face, directly in front of the right ear, he being in an unconscious condition but still living.

The Fire Brigade Ambulance was called and the injured male conveyed to the Lester Hospital, where death ensued at 9.30 p.m. resultant from this bullet wound, at no time did the now deceased regain consciousness.

From enquiries it was ascertained that the now deceased occupied room 605 on the 23-1-39 together with three other male Chinese speaking Northern dialect.

This room was registered in the name of Tsar (沙) by the now deceased, who has been the only occupant of this room since this date, he however being visited daily by five or six men, all speaking northern

At about 6.00 p.m. 29-1-39, the room boy of this room took the bill into the room, which bill is presented every three days, this bill including telephone calls, etc. amounting to $42.30, the now deceased being the only occupant at this period, the bill being left on the table by the room boy (Wong Ching Kung (汪錦恒) Boy 56) who then left the room and was not aware of the shooting until he over-heard the number one boy telephoning to Louza Station reporting the occurrence (Statement 1).

Another room boy, one Liang Gue Ching (梁健青) No.41, states that whilst he was attending to the occupants of room 607, which is situated directly opposite to room 605, he heard what he thought was a shot fired from outside this room, and upon proceeding to the corridor saw that the door of room 605 was open and the male occupant lying on the floor, he then informed the number one boy who telephoned to the Station, he making no attempt to enter the room (Statement 2).

No attempt was made to raise any alarm, no person seen by this room boy to leave the room.

Enquiries by detectives fail to find any persons from amongst the hotel staff who may have seen any person leave the room or corridor where this room is situated.

A search of the room was carried out, resultant in a .32 Calibre empty cartridge shell being found near to the bed, which is situated on the right from the entrance of the room, whilst from the position of the table in this room, practically directly in line with the door-way, it would appear that the now deceased was either sitting writing, or reading at this table, most probably writing, for a Chinese pen was found on the floor near to his body, whilst Chinese ink was on the table, the assailant firing from just inside the room and immediately decamping, for the large door of this room was found to be open by the room boy, Liang Que Ching (Statement 2).

This is corroborated by the position of the chair, bullet wound on right of the face of deceased, position of blood on the table, the deceased falling on his back to the floor, which all tend to point that the shot was fired from just inside the room, near to entrance of door-way.

Upon the table of this room was a book, printed in Chinese, the title however being in English, the title of which was "Mussolini".

A search of the person of the now deceased revealed a Japanese "pass" issued in the name of Moa Ngoh Hong (馬育航) valid until 30-4-39 for entering into Hankow, Hongkew and Kiangwan area, stating that this man was adviser to the Executive Yuan of the Reformed Government.

whilst a further search of the room revealed a large number of name cards inscribed with this name (Hoa Ngho Hong).

This "pass", number 111 was issued in Shanghai by the Japanese Authorities.

Amongst the personal effects found upon body of deceased was a wallet containing:-

- Two $10.00 notes, Hongkong currency.
- Three $1.00 notes, Hongkong currency.
- Two $1.00 notes, Canton Municipal Bank.
- Small notes, $1.00, Kwantung Province.
- Three $1.00 notes, local currency.
- Hongkong stamps, total value 50 cents.
- Chinese stamps, total value $1.05.
- Numerous name cards, papers and documents.

From a further search of the room, other papers and letters were found many of which would indicate that the now deceased had recently been in Hongkong, and that he was concerned in Pro-Japanese activities.

All these documents, papers, etc. including list of telephone calls sent from room 605 handed to D.S.I. Crighton for perusal and enquiries, for this murder appearing to be of a Political nature, further enquiries will be conducted by staff of C.I.

D.S.I. Dickson, Finger Print Bureau attended for purpose of examination of a glass and four tea-cups for possible finger prints.

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Wong Ching Tung, 24. 12. 51 native of Canton. taken by me P.I. Wong Tung at House Station on the 29-1-38 and interpreted by _____

I am room boy, Number 56, of the Sun Sun Hotel, working on the 6th floor. 1/s of Rooms 601 to 605.

On the 23-1-38, at about 11.00 a.m. four Chinese, three of whom were wearing foreign clothing, and one in Chinese clothing (dead man), these men talking in Northern and Canton dialect occupied room 605 of this hotel.

The name was registered in the name of Tsar (蔡) native of Canton.

Every day this room was visited by 5 or 6 Chinese, all speaking Northern dialect.

Today at 8.20 a.m. 29-1-38, I went into room 605 to clean the room and saw the man who was named Tsar (蔡) (deceased) sitting in the room, on the sofa reading a newspaper, he went out at about 10.00 a.m. and returned about 1.00 p.m.

At about 1.00 p.m. the bell of this room was rung and I attended and after entering the room saw three men in the room wearing foreign clothing, the man named Tsar (deceased), one of the men dressed in foreign clothing ordered tea, which I then took to room.

About 6.00 p.m. I took the "bill" to the room, and upon entering the room I saw that the room was only occupied by Tsar (deceased) who was lying on the bed, who told me to put the bill on the table, I then put the bill on the table and left the room.

I was talking with other boys in a large room near the stairs and I then heard the steward talking on the telephone to the Police Station stating a man had been shot in Room 605.

The following is the statement of Liang Gue Ching (梁健) native of Canton taken by me D.I. Loh Kung Sung. at Louisa Station on the 29-1-39 and interpreted by _____

I am a room boy, Number 41, of the Sun Sun Hotel, working on the 6th floor, I am i/e of rooms 607 to 615.

Today, 29-1-39 at about 6.50 p.m. I was in room 607, when I was giving dinner to the occupants of this room I heard a sound of a "Bang", which was similar to a shot being fired from outside.

I went from room 607, and saw that the opposite room number 605 was open.

From outside the room entrance I saw that a male Chinese was lying on the floor of this room, I then went and reported to the head steward, for I thought that this man had been shot.

I did not see any person run from the room.

After hearing the sound of what I thought was a shot until I went to the entrance of room 605, would be about two minutes.

Mystery Man Murdered In Local Hotel

Dead Man Believed To Have Been Puppet
Official

FOUND DEAD WITH BULLET IN BRAIN

Victim Said Secretary
Of "Nanking City Government"

FOR the first time in weeks, another political assassination occurred in the International Settlement last night.

The dead man is Mo Ngyoh-hung, believed to be about 46 years of age. Although definite confirmation was lacking at press time, he is reported to have been the secretary of the Japanese sponsored "Nanking Municipal Government."

Mo was shot to death by persons unknown while in his room at the Sun Sun Hotel on Nanking Road.

Boy Hears Shot

Shortly after 7 p.m., a room-boy in the hotel heard a shot which sounded as though it might have been fired in Mo's room.

Badly frightened, he called the hotel manager. The manager immediately called the Lousa Police Station and Detective Inspector George Bennett took charge of the investigation.

Upon entering the room, the detectives found Mo stretched out on the floor, with a bullet hole in his brain. After detectives had completed their preliminary investigation on the spot, the body was sent to the Lester Chinese Hospital where it was pronounced dead.

Arrived January 23

Mo, as near as could be ascertained last night, arrived in Shanghai from Nanking on January 23 and proceeded to the Sun Sun Hotel where he took a room, registering under the name of Teal.

He was an uncommunicative individual and gave none of the hotel employees an inkling as to what his business might be.

As a matter of fact, he was not discovered until after his death that he was known in most circles in which he traveled as Mo Ngyoh-hung. The police are not even sure that this was his real name.

Political Connections

The preliminary investigation last night also turned up enough evidence to cause the authorities to believe that the man had definite political connections with the Japanese sponsored regime in the Central China area.

One report on the subject was to the effect that he had been connected with the "Nanking Municipal Government" for some time. Another report states that he also held the concurrent post of adviser to the "Shanghai City Government" and, hence, spent some of his time commuting between here and Nanking.

Just who might have been responsible for the killing is a matter that is puzzling the police as well as the hotel management. Employees of the hotel saw no suspicious characters enter Mo's room, nor did they see anyone leave after the shooting.

THE MURDER IN THE SUN SUN HOTEL

The remains of Mo Yoh-hang (馬育航), who was murdered on the evening of January 29 at the Sun Sun Hotel (孫孫酒店), were removed to the mortuary on Kiaochow Road at 8 a.m. yesterday. After a post-mortem examination had been held by the doctor of the Shanghai First Special District Court, Mo Sz-zee (馬思齊), a son of the deceased, identified the dead body. At noon yesterday, the body was removed to the World Funeral Directors (世界殯儀館) on Kiaochow Road.

The remains will be encoffined at 2 p.m. to-day and will be kept there until arrangements have been made for removal to Mo's native place for burial.

It is learned that following the murder of Mo Yoh-hang, some Japanese in plain clothes called at the Police Station the same evening to make enquiries. They appeared to be much concerned over the affair.

The Police are continuing their investigations into the murder.

File No. S. B. H. C. S. Station,

Date 31st January 1938

Subject: Re assassination of Moh. Yeh Hsing (莫正平), In room No. 605 of the Sun Sun Hotel on the night of 29/1/39.

Made by D. S. I. Grighton

Forwarded by C. D. I. Grubb.

Sir,

I beg to report that at 2-30 p.m. 30/1/39 a telephone message was received from Mr. P. M. Streit of the Shanghai Telephone Co. to the effect that a Chinese member of his staff, who wished to remain anonymous, was willing to give certain information which might have a bearing on this case.

On receipt of this message, D. S. Fowler immediately proceeded to the office of Mr. Streit, and there met a male Chinese, native of Formosa, who volunteered the following information:-

It would appear that in 1918, the informant, who was then employed in Government service, with the Kwangtung Provincial Government, came to know the deceased, who was then Chief of the Ministry of Finance, both working directly under General Chen Chui Ming (陈炯明), who was at that time Governor of Swatow, and that the deceased at this time was on very friendly terms with one named Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生) who was known to be a close associate of Mr. Wang Ching ei (汪精卫). Later as a result of an upheaval in the government caused through General Chen Chui Ming (陈炯明), all were forced to give up their respective positions, more so the deceased and Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生), who were forced to flee the country, owing to warrants being issued for their arrest. Both these men fled to Japan, and remained there for some considerable time, Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生), as result of entering Tokoy University remaining there the longest. Between that time and the present, both these men had held various Government positions, and four years ago the deceased was made an Honorary Counsellor of the Military Affairs Commission of the Nationalist Government. The other man, i.e. Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生), was however less fortunate, and for sometime prior to the outbreak of the present Sino-Japanese hostilities was being supported by the deceased, who was then, and up until the time of his death a member of Mr. Wang Ching Wei's Party. With the outbreak of the present hostilities, Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生), obtained various positions in the numerous Japanese sponsored Puppet Organizations, and about six months ago obtained the position of Chief of the Japanese Special Service Political Section under General Toka. In view of this, and with the breaking away of Wang Ching Wei (汪精衛) and his party from the Chungking Government, Tsai (蔡) went to Hong-Kong about six weeks ago for the purpose of recruiting the services of the deceased, who was then residing at No. 13 Lock road, Kowloon, and in this he was successful, both he and the deceased returning to Shanghai on the 1/1/39. At this time the deceased took up residence at the China Hotel (room number forgotten), all expenses being paid by Tsai (蔡). Shortly after this informant learned that deceased had obtained a pass from Wen Tsung Yao (溫宗堯) President of the Legislative Yuan Of the Reformed Government, in which he was referred to as Chief Advisor to the Executive Yuan, but this, informant states was false, and was merely a coverup for the actual position of the deceased, which was Assistant Chief of General Toka's Special Political Section, which is located at 483 Boone Road Apartment No. 4. Shortly after arriving in Shanghai deceased moved to the Dollar Hotel, then to the Yangtze Hotel, Far Eastern Hotel, and finally on the 23/1/39 to the Sun Sun, where he engaged room No. 605, which was rented in the name of Tsai (蔡) who used to visit him daily, and who every three days paid the room expenses. In reference to the latter item, it will be recalled that just prior to his assassination, the deceased called for his bill, and according to informer he did this with the knowledge that it was the intention of Tsai (蔡) to call that evening for purpose of defraying these expenses. That Tsai (蔡) did call at the hotel that evening was confirmed by the informant, who stated that at about 9 p.m. on the 29/1/39 he received a telephone call from Tsai (蔡) who informed him that at about 8 p.m. he had called at the 6th floor of the Sun Sun Hotel along with his wife, but seeing a number of foreign police officers gathered there he had enquired from a boy as to what had happened, and on being informed that the occupant of room 605 had just been assassinated, he quickly left, and reported the matter to the Japanese Special Service Corp, after which he communicated with the informant, requesting that he adopt the role of son of the deceased, and attend the inquest the following morning for purpose of claiming the body. This informant refused to do, and Tsai (蔡) then mentioned that he would get someone else to do it.

This informant, who appeared very willing to give every assistance to the police, was next questioned as to why the deceased had been requested to come to Shanghai, and whether or not he could disclose any special reason for this, and he in reply stated that although he had no definite proof, he strongly suspected that deceased, who had quite a strong following in the south, had had something to do with the fall of Canton into the Japanese hands, and that with him having a still stronger pull in and around Swatow, it was possible that it might be for a similar reason that the Japanese had requested his presence here, however as in the former instance he had no definite proof of this and was merely voicing his suspicions.

As it appeared rather strange that this man should make all the foregoing disclosures, especially when he claimed to be a very good friend of the deceaseds family, he was discreetly questioned along these lines, and as a result it was ascertained that his reason for this was that he had had received a cable from deceaseds wife in Hongkong, requesting him to assist in the funeral arrangements, and he was afraid that Tsai (^H/_S) and probably the Japanese Authorities might interfere in this matter. It was then explained to him that at the inquest that morning a male Chinese pertaining to be the son of deceased had claimed the body, and that this man was at the moment at Police Headquarters. Informant explained that this could not be so, as to the best of his knowledge no members of deceaseds family were in Shanghai, and in confirmation of this he repeated the words of Tsai Cheng Jen (蔡祥生) who had stated that he would get someone else to pose as the son of deceased.

In view of this latter information D.S. Fowler immediately returned to headquarters, where he informed the undersigned, who in turn questioned the male Chinese in question. This man still adhered to original statement to the effect that he was the eldest son of the deceased, however when requested to produce some means of identification he could not so, and requested permission to return to his home in the French Concession where he ^{could} definitely identify himself. As mentioned in Diary No. 2 of this file he did so to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Attached herewith copies of translations of all documents etc found in possession of the deceased, a perusal of which in no small way confirms the information as given by this informer, and tends to show that the deceased was undoubtedly engaged in obtaining information for and on behalf of the Japanese Special Service Section.

I am, Sir,

Yours Obediently.
